

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 8. to Saturday February 12. 1736.

St. James's, February 9.

HIS Majesty was this Day pleased, with the Advice of his Privy Council, to appoint the following Sheriffs, viz.

Lincolnshire, William Meux, Esq; in the Room of Coney Tunnard, Esq; deceased.

Suffolk, Reginald Rabbitt, of Bramfield, Esq; in the Room of John Cooper, Esq; deceased.

Whitehall, February 12.

His Majesty has been pleased to order a Congé d'Elire to pass the Great Seal, and a Letter Mandatory to the Dean and Chapter of the Metropolitan Church of Canterbury, recommending the Right Reverend Father in God Dr. John Potter, Bishop of Oxford, to be by them elected Archbishop of that See, vacant by the Decease of the most Reverend Dr. William Wake, late Archbishop thereof.

Whitehall, February 12.

His Majesty has been pleased to constitute and appoint Sir Brocas Gardiner, Bart. John Shorter, Richard Shelley and William Fisher, Esqrs. together with William Blair, Esq; in the Room of Brinley Skinner, Esq; to be his Commissioners for managing the Duties on Stamp Vellum, Parchment and Papet, &c. And also to appoint William Brydges, Esq; to be Secretary or Chief Clerk to the said Commissioners.

Dublin Castle, January 30.

On the good News received this Day of his Majesty's safe Arrival in Great Britain, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Ringing of Bells, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

Whitehall, February 11, 1736-7.

Whereas on Saturday the 9th of October last, about Ten o'Clock at Night, at a Place called Elints Gate, in the Parish of Forton, in the County of Stafford, John Dearn, Blacksmith, of Loynton, in the said County, was assaulted by divers Persons unknown, one of whom seized his Horse by the Bridle, whilst another knock'd him off his Horse, and, by the Assistance of the others, forcibly took from him Fifty Shillings, and beat and bruised him in so barbarous a Manner, that he has languished ever since, and is in great Danger of losing his Life, or the Use of his Limbs: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Assault and Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Persons, who shall discover one or more of his Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Advertisements.

Speedily to be published,

In Quarto, large Folio, and small Folio, The WORKS of Mr. POPE in PROSE; And first, an Authentic Edition of his LETTERS, with large Additions of several never before printed, between Him, the late Bishop Atterbury, and other Eminent Persons.

All this Author's Genuine Works in Verse having been publish'd in Quarto, large Folio, and small Folio; those he has written in Prose are intended to be publish'd in the same Manner, to accommodate such Persons as are desirous to complete those Setts. No more will be printed than Five Hundred, the Reason for which is, that when a larger Number were printed of the former Poetical Volumes, the Proprietors were considerably Losers, by their being immediately Pyrated in an incorrect and scandalous Manner.

SUBSCRIPTIONS for the LETTERS, at One Guinea the whole Payment for the Quarto or large Folio, and half a Guinea the small Folio, are taken in by J. & P. Knapton, at the Crown in Ludgate-street; L. Gilliver, at Homer's Head over against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street; J. Brindley, in New Bond-street; and Rob. Doddsley, at Tully's Head in Pallmall.

N. B. Whatever Persons have the former Volumes and would complete their Setts, are desired to pay their Subscriptions by or before the Fifteenth of next Month at farthest; the Number being so small, and the Books to be delivered as soon as the Subscription is full.

Whoever wants the former Volumes may have them at the same Places.

WHEREAS William Cullyer, of Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk, Merchant, has vested all his Estates and Effects in us for the Payment of all his Creditors; all Persons indebted to the said William Cullyer are required immediately to pay such Debts to us the said Trustees, or one of us, or they will be sued for the same: And the Creditors of the said William Cullyer who expect any Advantage from the said Trust, are hereby required to come and execute the Deed of Trust made between the said William Cullyer, his Creditors and us, as Trustees, on or before the 25th of March next ensuing. And we do hereby give Notice, that the Estates of the said William Cullyer, situate in Thornden, in the County of Suffolk, to the yearly Value of Forty Pounds or thereabouts; in Deopham in the County of Norfolk, between Fifty and Sixty Pounds a Year, and in Windham in the said County, Twenty Pounds a Year, are to be sold by us the said Trustees. Particulars of the said Estates may be seen at Mr. Robert Ferners, Attorney at Law in Yarmouth, or with any of us
